Hopefully those of you who were at the Ball have recovered from the fun of Friday night, and are getting on with all your work for Study Week!

Thanks to all of you who came along and made it a fantastic evening. We'll hopefully be putting photos on the website (www.cumusoc.co.uk) by the end of the week (we're having a few problems with the site at the moment), so if you have photos of the Ball you'd like to contribute, please email them to music@cf.ac.uk

Those who had professional photos taken, the albums are now in the Departmental Library along with the order forms, and you must place your orders by Thursday 23rd March.

For all those who weren't at the Ball, here's all the important things you missed...

- HELP NEEDED

DOUBLE BASS PLAYER REQUIRED

Rhys Phillips is looking for a double bass player who is free to play in West Side Story from Monday 27th March to Saturday 1st April. The Monday night is a bandcall, the Tuesday is a dress rehearsal and then Weds-Sat are the 4 nights of the show. The player will be paid £20/night, ie £120 for the week. One small snag is that the show is in Bridgend so the player is going to need transport of some kind. If you could get back to Rhys on rhysphillips42@gmail.com, he'd be very grateful. It will be a 'first come, first served' basis.

FOCUS GROUP FOR NEW MUSIC BAR

Christopher Berry is studying business, and interested in setting up a live music bar somewhere in Cardiff. He needs about 5-8 people who may be interested in taking part in some discussions to help give him a little guidance in line with the proposed business idea. It will only require about half an hour or so of your time, in about two weeks. The theme will be along the lines of live performances by singer songwriters, both established artists and unsigned national talent (i.e. James Blunt, Katie Melua, KT Tunstall, John Mayer, Damian Rice, Howie Day, Jack Johnson, Norah Jones, Ben Harper, Nick Harper: kind of genre - you get the idea!)

If you are interested, please email Chris on st03002781@uwic.ac.uk asap (The first round will be on him!)

- SO LONG AND FAREWELL...

All that is left to say is a "goodbye" from your committee of 2005/6, and good luck to the committee of 2006/7.

We hope we have served you well over the past 12 months, and we thank you all for your help, support, attendance at socials, and your membership. Please be nice to your committee of next year, and if there's anything that we didn't do that you wanted, or vice versa, don't tell us...tell them!
